

The Cookeville Fair

Sept. 7, 8, 9, 1911

The Prominent Fair The Successful Fair
The Fair where the Crowd Goes
ONE PRICE FOR ADMISSION—25c

The largest, prettiest and most convenient grounds—remodeled and rebuilt. New floral and agricultural buildings. Larger and more carefully arranged premium list. Every possible exhibit and amusement feature on the program. Spirited contests between the best and purest bred strains of live stock.

The grand parade of premium stock at one o'clock each day will itself be worth the price of admission. Large premiums will be offered in Floral Hall and Agricultural Department.

The Best Watered Fair in the State

A deep artesian well furnishes an abundance of the purest freestone water for man and beast. The show ring will be flooded each night, assuring a dustless exhibition.

FREE BAND CONCERTS

The railways will sell excursion tickets. Passenger trains will arrive at and leave the main entrance of the grounds every ten minutes. Ladies, and children under five years old, admitted free first day. Don't miss the greatest fair of the season.

For Premium List and other information address A. P. BARNES, Secretary, Cookeville, Tenn.

Mrs. J. D. Walling

Mrs. J. D. Walling, one of the most highly esteemed ladies of this city, died Monday morning after a lingering illness at her home in North Cookeville. She was fifty years old and had been a devoted member of the Christain church from her childhood. She is survived by her husband, Elder J. D. Walling and seven children, Mrs. M. H. Hankins, of Livingston, Mrs. Shook Keith of Algood, Mrs. W. M. Shanks and Mrs. E. W. Capshaw and Martha and Ellen Walling of this city and Fred Walling of Muscogee, Oklahoma.

The interment took place at the city cemetery Tuesday morning.

The family has the heartfelt sympathy of every one.

Still in the Practice

It has been reported that after I was appointed Postmaster at Cookeville that took away from me the degree and rights of an M. D. I wish to say that when I was appointed Postmaster that I formed a partnership with Dr. J. R. Storie, a graduate in medicine. He took lectures at Vanderbilt and Nashville Universities graduating from the University of Tennessee in the years 1893-4. He has been in the regular practice of medicine and surgery 22 years. We have our office in the Gibson Building, Rooms 5 and 6. We will be glad to meet and serve you in the future as in the past. Thanking you for past and future favors. Yours truly,
